Annual Function

VISUAL EXTRAVAGANZA

26th October 2018 : The students of Classes 1, 2 and 3 of VIS exhibited a phenomenal show to mark the various shades of spring and the significance of every color associated with this beautiful and radiant season. The show was inclusive of all the elements viz. grandeur, luminality, tenderness to satiate the visual as well as spiritual appetite of the audience whilst taking them on a ride to the splendid world of colours. The Chief Guest and the Guest of honour were Shree. Vinay Kumar Jain (Chairperson Vidhyashram) and Mrs. Nimisha Tiwari respectively were heartily welcomed with warm hospitality, which is the characteristic feature of VIS.

The show comprised of various dance performances, narrations, plays and recitals showcased by little ones of the school. The tapping of the feet and the clapping of the hands were inexorable given to the rhythmic and exquisite staging of myriads of presentations. The entire event vividly manifested the significance of every color that represents spring season. Orange color spoke of sacrifice whereas white signified simplicity. Similarly red, yellow and green color signified hope, joy and prosperity respectively.

BACHPAN

27th October 2018 : VIS showcased the zealous performances of the students of classes 4 and 5 in the most realistic manner.

They were upfront in staging the monotonous cycle of childhood and school life resulting into impending turmoil. The show explicitly depicted parent's ambivalence as they have to reluctantly burden their children with umpteen activities to ensure their place in the rat race of seeking the desirous position.

The children keep their nose to the grindstone to succeed but in this whole process they are losing their innocence and halcyon days, which would not be retrieved later no matter how hard they try. Also this kind of hard work is shaping them into Jack of all trades but master of none.

The Chief Guest Mrs. Tanudeep Mehr was elated to see the children exhibiting their woes in a jaunty manner. She was of the view that parents should be a little liberal while shouldering the children with multiple activities. Primary Wing Academic Head Mrs. Sushma Ramdeo presented the annual report.

*A parent is a teacher at home,
a teacher is a parent in school and the child is the centre of our universe.*

18th July 2018 : RED COLOUR DAY CELEBRATION

"The colour of love and smiles illuminates the air with energy, vigour and exuberance....."Red' colour symbolizes enthusiasm, life and vitality. The day started off with the colour red everywhere red dress, red rose, red teddy, red car, red apples, red cherries, here a red..... there a red....., everywhere a red a red our little ones spent a spectacular red day. Bulletin boards displayed red craft work made by the children. The tiny tots looked stunning in their red outfits.

Special assembly was conducted with emphasis on significance of red colour. Some of the students spoke a few sentences on the red object they brought from home. Teachers discussed the theme in circle time and linked it to all subjects. It was a scintillating day with innocent faces gleaming and reflecting brightness, joy, love and happiness.

28th July 2018: 'ORIENTATION PROGRAMME'

An 'Orientation Programme' was organized for the parents of Vidhyashram Kidz Play School at VIS. The programme commenced with the introduction of staff by school Headmistress Mrs. Neel Kamal Singh who welcomed the parents. She shared the school vision, the curriculum, school systems, teaching methodologies and the co-scholastic activities. She laid stress on effective communication between the teachers and parents and also sought their support and suggestions so that the best could be done for the overall development of the students. She also gave tips on how to nurture a child with love and care to build a strong foundation for a glorious future.

14th to 18th August 2018 : HYGIENE WEEK

Getting preschoolers to take over the brushing, scrubbing and rinsing themselves is an important step in the development of a preschooler's independence. Not only does it give parents a welcome break and help ditch the dirt in the short term, but teaching basic hygiene concepts to children at a young age forms the groundwork of a healthy lifestyle in the future. Students were asked to bring their tooth brush and were taught about the importance of brushing and basic hygiene through the week.

24th August 2018 : RAKSHA BANDHAN CELEBRATION

Raksha Bandhan is a celebration of the abiding and immaculate bond of love between brother and sister. Raksha Bandhan Celebration was done for the tiny tots of Vidhyashram Kidz. The teachers explained the significance of the festival in their respective classes while the excited girls tied the auspicious thread (Rakhi) around the wrist of the boys who gave sweets and chocolates in exchange.

29th August 2018 : GREEN COLOUR DAY

Green Colour Day was celebrated with great zeal and enthusiasm. The Nursery, LKG and UKG students and their teachers came to school dressed in pretty green attires and looked eco friendly. The classrooms were beautifully decorated in green theme and all the green objects from a child's immediate surroundings were brought to the classrooms. Students were taught the identification and recognition of green fruits, vegetables, leaves and trees. Many activities and games pertaining to green colour were organised for the kids. Children brought green snacks and eatables in their tiffins.

1st September 2018 : PARENTS TEACHER MEET

Teachers discussed with parents their ward's performance and areas that need attention for future achievements.

5th September 2018 : TEACHERS DAY CELEBRATION

Teacher's Day was celebrated with great joy and enthusiasm. The celebration began with a rhyme presentation followed by role play, telling the meaning of the word teacher. Tiny tots danced on the tone of "Guru re Brahma Guru re Vishnu" which made the teachers sit spellbound. The event was a wonderful experience for the children – an amalgamation of knowledge and entertainment. Children showed their love towards their teachers by making a handmade card.
